OLIVIA Welcome back!

FRASER Hello. Nice to see you again. I hope you had a nice summer holiday.

OLIVIA Here in Britain it's the last week of the summer holidays and we are on a boat trip on the Caledonian Canal, near Loch Ness, with our parents. And before you ask, we haven't seen the monster.

FRASER Dad doesn't like boats because he gets seasick.

OLIVIA Dizzie, our dog, is asleep on deck all day and King, our parrot, is swearing like a pirate so we keep him in his cage in my cabin. Columbus – that's our cat – is at home with our neighbours, Sue and Robert.

It's eight in the morning and everybody is on deck. Mrs Clark is reading the newspaper. Fraser and Olivia are going to do the washing up after breakfast.

MRS CLARK Listen to this: The weather forecast says it's going to be nice today. It's going to be sunny and quite hot. But it's going to be cloudy later this afternoon, and windy.

FRASER What's the weather forecast for tomorrow?

MRS CLARK Tomorrow it's going to rain. It's going to be a lot cooler.

FRASER What are we going to do today?

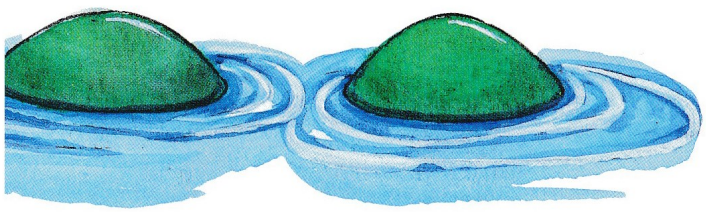

MRS CLARK I'm going to stay on board and fix a few things, but if you want to visit Inverness, you should go today. Why don't you take a packed lunch? There are some left-overs from yesterday's tea.

KING Aye aye, Captain.

OLIVIA I don't like left-overs.

MRS CLARK Then I suggest you borrow my fishing-rod and catch some fish for lunch.

OLIVIA Come on Fraser. Let's go and get Nessie.

What do you want for breakfast?

Cd 1 Spår 3

It is 7.30 a.m. The Clarks are having breakfast. It is Fraser's turn to help in the kitchen. Mrs Clark is reading the paper.

FRASER Olivia, what do you want for breakfast? Cereal?

OLIVIA Just cornflakes and milk, please.

FRASER What else?

OLIVIA Tea and toast. Thanks, slave!

FRASER Right. That's it. Get it yourself!

MR CLARK Come on, guys. Be nice.

MRS CLARK Can I have some marmalade, love?

FRASER We haven't got any.

MRS CLARK OK. Put it on the shopping list. I'll have jam then. Thanks.

FRASER We haven't got any.

MRS CLARK This is ridiculous. We really need to go shopping.

OLIVIA Dad, can you pass me the bread and butter, please? … Ta.

FRASER Dad, what do you want?

MR CLARK I'd like a real breakfast. Can I have some orange juice, followed by bacon, sausage, mushrooms and scrambled eggs.

FRASER You must be joking. This isn't a hotel! Anyway, we don't have any bacon, or eggs, or mushrooms. We've got orange juice, some sausages and a banana.

MR CLARK How sad. No thanks. I'll have coffee and toast, please. Hey, there's smoke coming from the toaster.

FRASER Oh, no. That's the last toast.

MR CLARK I'll have the banana…

DID YOU GET IT?

Nice to meet you!

Cd 1
Spår 5

It's a very hot summer's day. Fraser and Olivia are on the beach. Olivia is lying on her towel and she is reading. Fraser is flying a kite. He is also holding an ice cream that is melting.

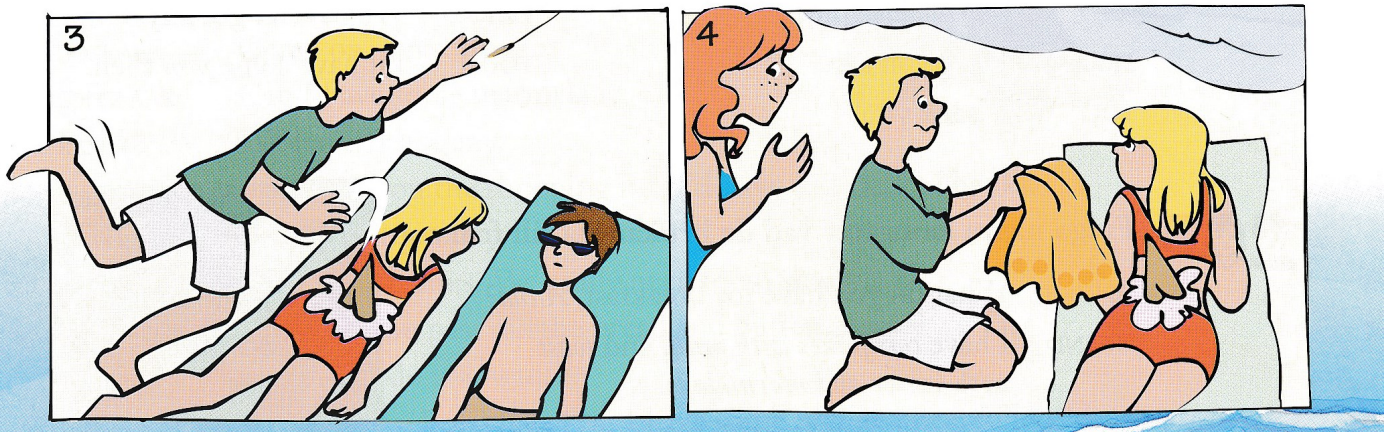

OLIVIA Fraser! Watch your ice cream! It's dripping everywhere.

FRASER Don't worry. I'm OK. Look at my kite. It's really high.

OLIVIA And mind those people!

FRASER What people?

OLIVIA Oh no!

Fraser trips and falls on some people who are sunbathing. His ice cream lands on a girl's back!

KAREN Ahhhh!

FRASER I'm so sorry. Are you alright?

OLIVIA Fraser!

FRASER I know, I know.

KAREN I'm OK. What a mess!

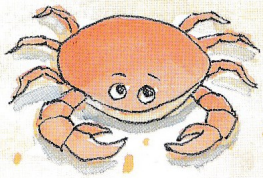

FRASER Here you are. Use my towel.

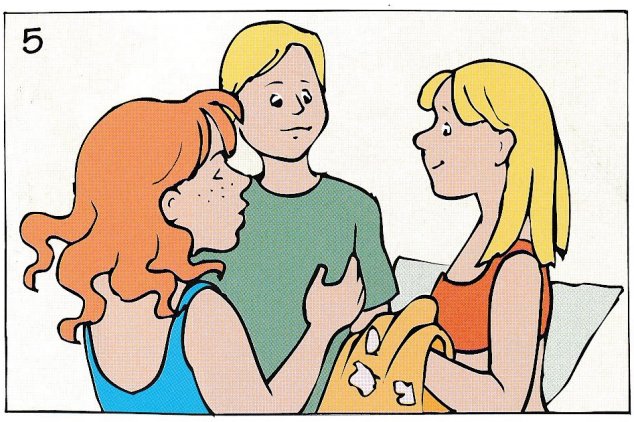

KAREN Thank you.

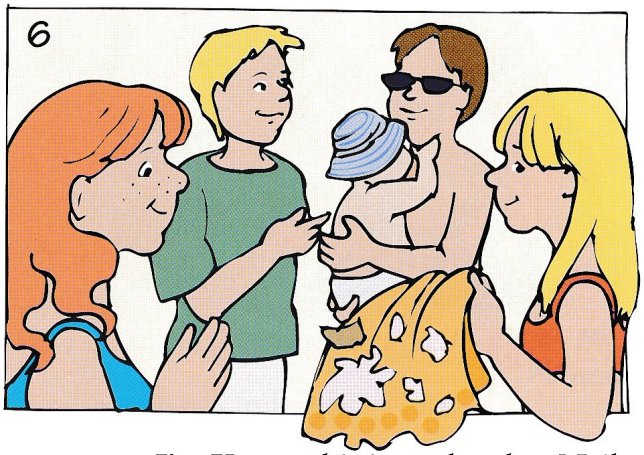

FRASER It's good ice cream, isn't it?

OLIVIA I'm so sorry about my brother! He's so clumsy.

KAREN That's OK.

OLIVIA Where are you from?

KAREN New Zealand. We're on holiday. It's winter back home.

OLIVIA Cool! I'm Olivia and this is Fraser. We live here.

KAREN Nice to meet you!

FRASER Yes … ice to meet you too! Ha Ha!

KAREN I'm Karen, this is my brother Neil, and this is my baby brother Eric.

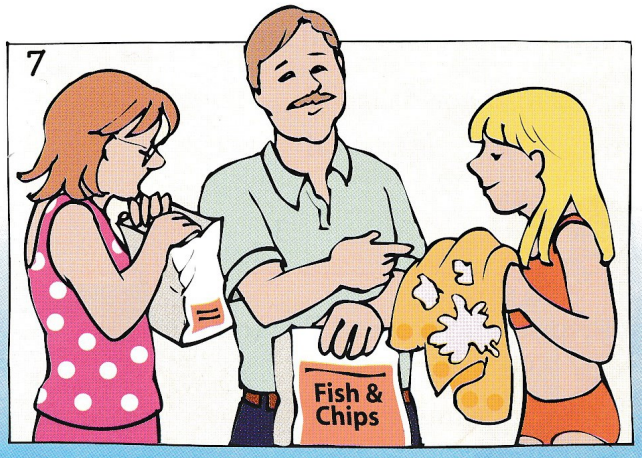

FRASER That's nice. How old is he?

NEIL He's eight months old. I'm making a sandcastle for him.

FRASER Let me help you. Where are you staying?

NEIL At the Seaview Hotel. My parents are getting fish and chips – and some ice cream. Mmm…

KAREN Oh, here they are!

MR KANAWA Hi guys! Here's your lunch but I'm afraid we don't have any ice cream…

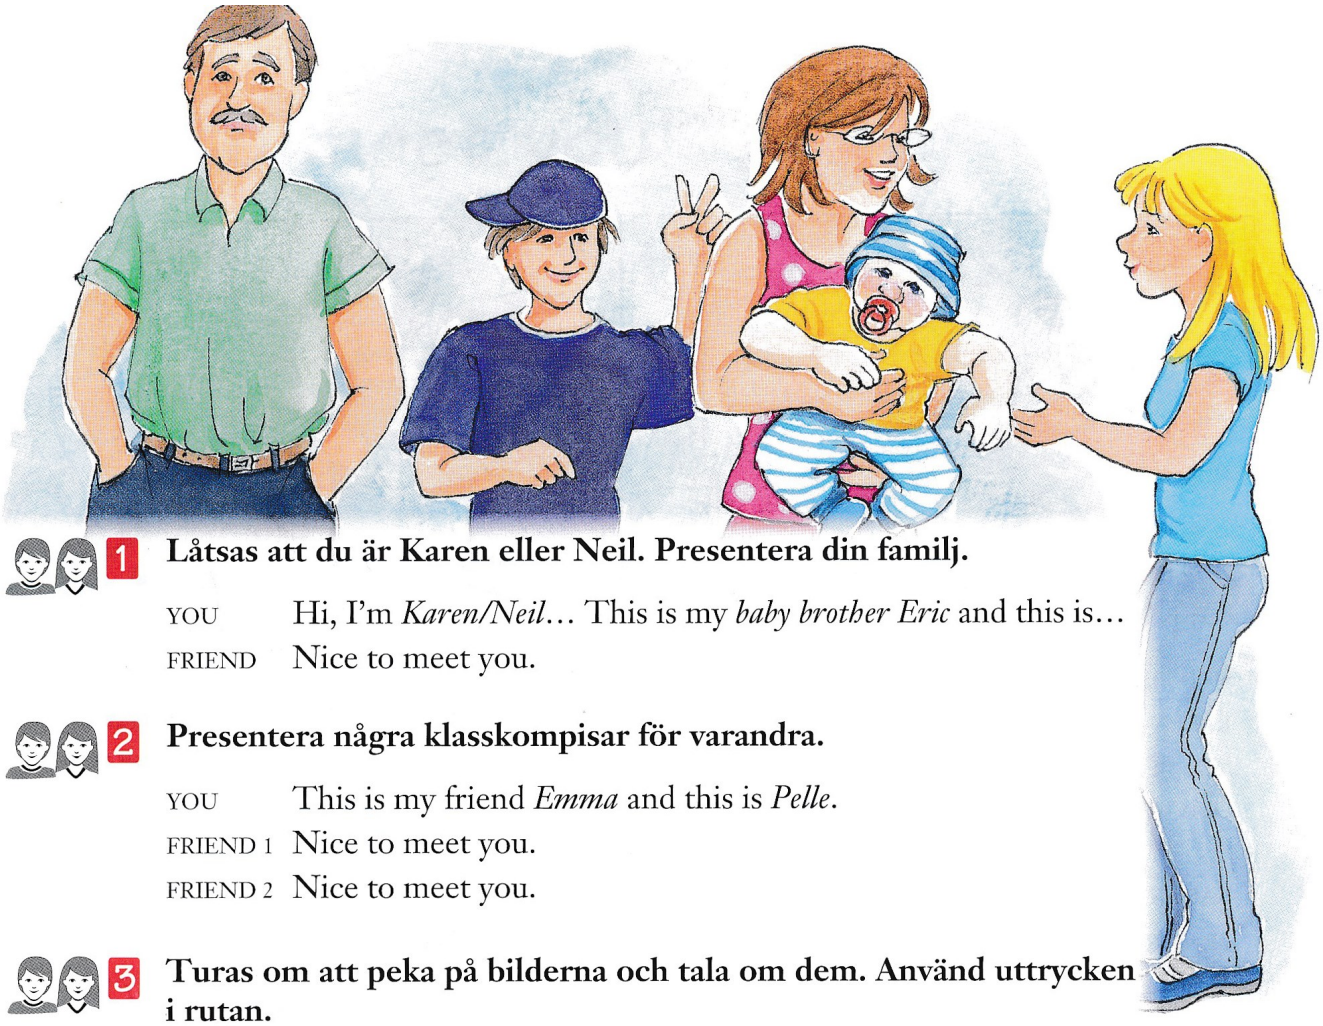

MRS KANAWA Ah! I see you already have some, Karen!

DID YOU GET IT?

Svara på frågorna.

Let's go on the Wild River Ride!

Cd 1
Spår 6

Olivia and Fraser are on Brighton Pier with Karen and Neil, their new friends from New Zealand.

KAREN What a view! The pier's amazing.

OLIVIA Yeah. The original pier is over a hundred years old. It's very famous.

FRASER There's loads to do. It's got rides and amusement arcades. And food!

OLIVIA Do you want another ice cream, Fraser?

FRASER Very funny.

NEIL Let's go on the dodgems. I love those.

FRASER No. They're boring. Let's go on the Wild River Ride.

OLIVIA What do you want to do?

KAREN How about the Fun Palace? I love the video driving games. But we need change.

OLIVIA It's OK. We've got change. I've got lots of 20s and some pound coins. Have you got any 50s, Fraser?

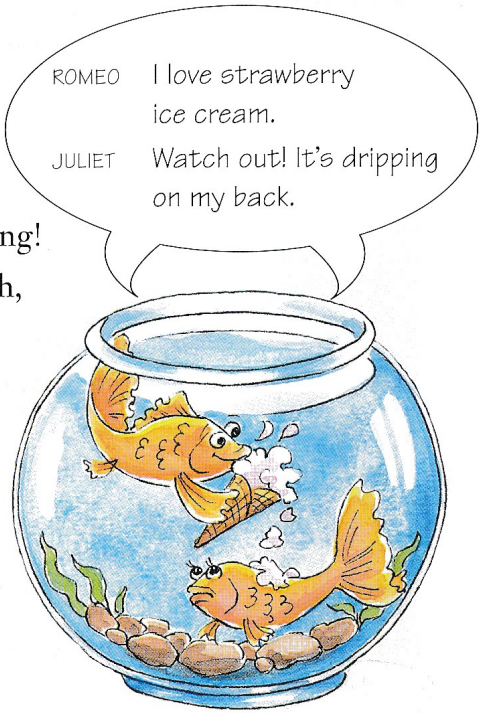

FRASER Nope. And can I have a doughnut, Olivia? I'm starving!

OLIVIA Typical. Fraser's always hungry, he's got a sweet tooth, and never has any money. How much are they?

FRASER They're one fifty each. Or five for a fiver.

KAREN Can we also get some souvenirs here?

OLIVIA Yes, but I recommend The Lanes. It's a really cool place with nice little shops and cafés. You can buy all sorts of things there, for example pictures, jewellery and T-shirts.

FRASER Why don't you and Karen go. I hate shopping. I'll show Neil the Super Booster.

OLIVIA OK, but don't forget we have to go to the supermarket later. Come on, Karen. Let's go.

It's getting late

Cd 1 spår 17

NEIL Wow! Lightning!

KAREN Cool. Now here comes the thunder… Wow! It's loud.

OLIVIA Oh oh! A thunderstorm! Nice weather for your holiday…

KAREN That's so typical. Well, it's getting late. What time is it?

OLIVIA It's almost ten o'clock.

FRASER Actually, on my new watch, it's 9.52, exactly.

OLIVIA What time are your parents picking you up?

KAREN At about half ten. On their way back from the theatre. Or maybe at quarter to eleven if we're lucky. The play finishes at a quarter past.

FRASER Which theatre?

KAREN The Rose.

FRASER Really?!

NEIL Yes. Why?

FRASER It's haunted.

NEIL No way!

OLIVIA It's true. In the 1940s, during the war, a famous actress killed herself, because her husband died in a battle in France. She didn't want to live without him.

KAREN How did she kill herself?

OLIVIA She jumped from the top of the theatre and landed on the stage.

NEIL Splat!

OLIVIA And now, some people say they can hear her crying and moaning at night. Sometimes during a performance.

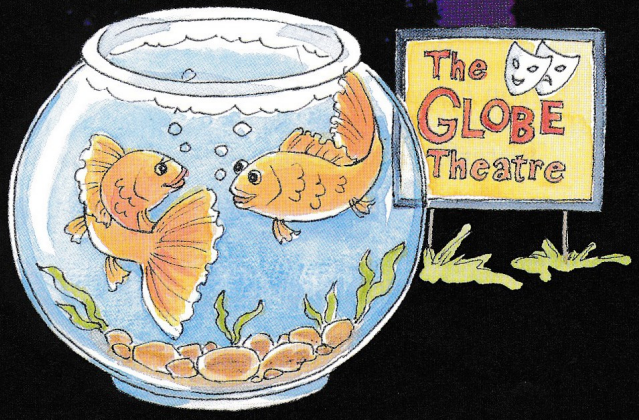

FRASER Yeah, and sometimes there are strange noises on stage, like bumping or knocking. So if your parents are late, maybe the ghost has got them!

OLIVIA Thanks Fraser. You know how to make your friends feel good.

DAD (MR KANAWA) Morning, guys!

NEIL Morning!

MUM (MRS KANAWA) Did you have a good day yesterday?

KAREN Yes. Olivia and Fraser are great fun. Fraser pushed his headmistress into the freezer at the supermarket!

MUM Oh no! How?

KAREN With his trolley.

NEIL She fell into the ice cream section!

MUM What did Fraser do then?

NEIL Nothing, I'm afraid.

DAD I see… and what did you do all day?

KAREN Lots of things. We played Scrabble, we listened to music and we talked about the theatre where you saw the play.

DAD And?

NEIL Well, they told us that it's haunted!

KAREN Be quiet, Neil. You are starting to sound like Fraser!

Another couple come into the dining room.

MRS McKAY Hello! Do you mind if we sit here?

MRS KANAWA Not at all. Go ahead.

MR KANAWA Is it your first visit to Brighton?

MRS McKAY Actually it's our second visit to Brighton. We came here last year for my cousin's wedding. We love it.

MR McKAY We're from Scotland.

MR KANAWA We're from New Zealand.

MR McKAY I went to New Zealand a few years ago on business. I went to Christchurch on the South Island and Wellington on the North Island. I took a day off to see whales, dolphins and seals. That was amazing.

New Zealand lies in the southern Pacific Ocean, 1,600 km east of Australia. It is made up of the North and the South Islands and a number of smaller islands.

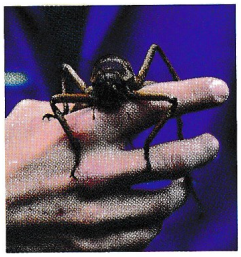

New Zealanders are very friendly and love outdoor activities. There are lots of things to see – active volcanoes, hot springs, glaciers, fjords, lakes, beaches, forests and national parks. Popular sports in New Zealand are skiing, snowboarding, surfing, sailing and kayaking. Many people try bungee jumping.

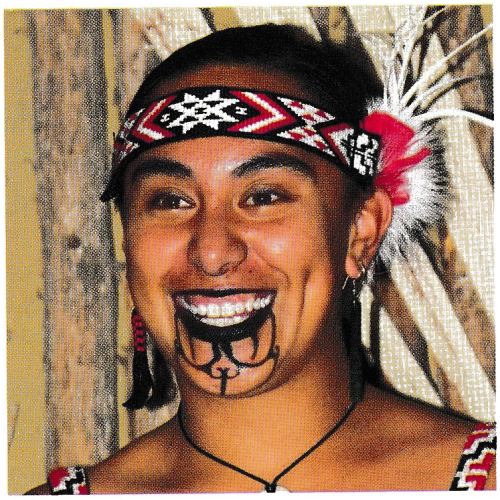

Do you know what a kiwi is? Well, the New Zealanders call themselves kiwis. Kiwi is of course a fruit but it's also a bird with very small wings. It cannot fly and walks around mostly at night. It can live a long time – up to forty years.

There are no dangerous animals in New Zealand so you don't have to worry about anything. There are no snakes or poisonous spiders but you can see the heaviest insect in the world, the weta, which can be as big as a mouse.

Maoris were the first inhabitants of New Zealand. Aoteoroa is the Maori name for New Zealand. It means 'The land of the long white cloud'. When the Maoris came in their boats from Polynesia 500 hundred years ago they saw snow on the mountain tops for the first time and to them it looked like white clouds.

Captain Clark is in Bombay in India. But he is in hospital. He had an accident yesterday. He fell off an elephant!

NURSE When did it happen?

MR CLARK Yesterday. It was a lovely day until this happened.

NURSE How did you fall off?

MR CLARK Well, one of the guides shot a snake and surprised the elephant. He threw me off and I landed badly. It was a long way down! The pain was awful.

NURSE When you landed you hurt yourself. You broke your arm and leg, and you have concussion. You banged your head, you see.

MR CLARK Yes, I still feel dizzy. Otherwise am I OK?

NURSE Well, you cracked two ribs…

MR CLARK Oh.

NURSE ...and dislocated your shoulder.

MR CLARK I see.

NURSE ...and broke your wrist.

MR CLARK Oh dear.

NURSE And you sprained about four fingers. No flying for you for a while! Did anyone help you when you hit the ground?

MR CLARK The guide saw me fall and immediately called an ambulance, which brought me here. My friend Raj took my things for me, and he phoned my family to tell them what happened.

NURSE How did they react?

MR CLARK They were worried, yes. My wife told me to be careful. Anyway, I got some great video shots of the elephant. Did anyone find my camcorder?

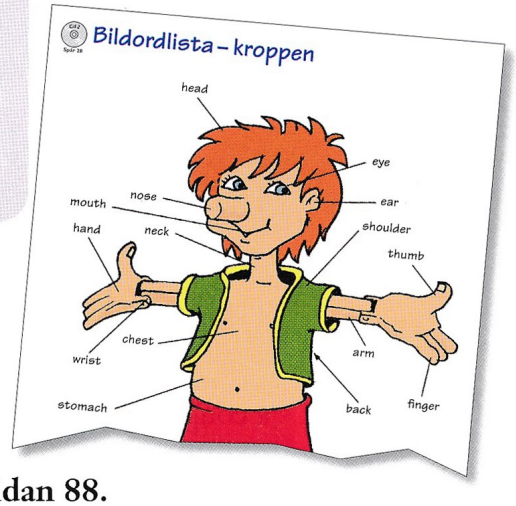

NURSE Sort of. The ambulance driver told me that the elephant stood on it when you fell off.

LIZ Yes, these blue sandals are lovely. How much are they?

MR SINGH Two hundred and fifty.

LIZ Wow! That's very cheap. They are cheaper than the shoes in the other market.

MR SINGH Yes. I have the best prices.

LIZ Can I try them on?

MR SINGH Yes, of course. Here you are.

LIZ Hmm. They feel tight. Do you have bigger ones?

MR SINGH What size are you?

LIZ Well, in England I'm a size six.

MR SINGH Ah, yes. Over there. Try those. They will fit you. They are a lovely green.

LIZ Yes. They're even more beautiful and more comfortable than the others. How much are they, again?

MR SINGH Two hundred and fifty rupees.

LIZ How about two hundred?

MR SINGH No, no. You can have them for two thirty.

LIZ OK. Done. I'll buy them.

LIZ How much is this pink blouse? I love it.

MR SINGH That one is 170 rupees. It's pure silk.

LIZ Have you got a smaller size?

MR SINGH I'm afraid not.

LIZ Hang on! This is gorgeous. A tiny elephant!

MR SINGH It's hand-made. 150 rupees.

LIZ How about 100 rupees. OK?

MR SINGH Alright madam. Is it for a friend? As a gift? Shall I wrap it?

Gandhi

Cd 1
Spår 29

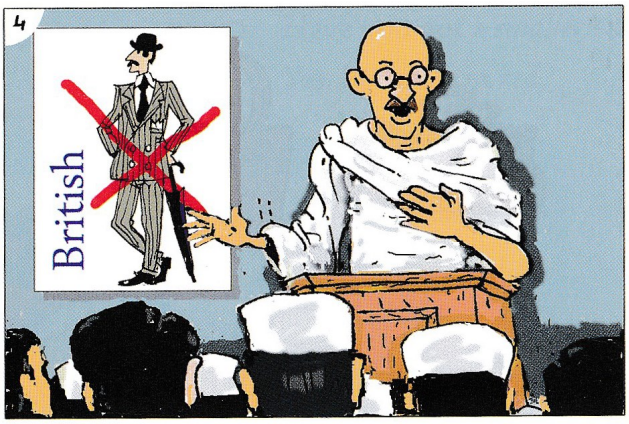

Gandhi was born in 1869 in Porbander. It is a small town on the western coast of India.

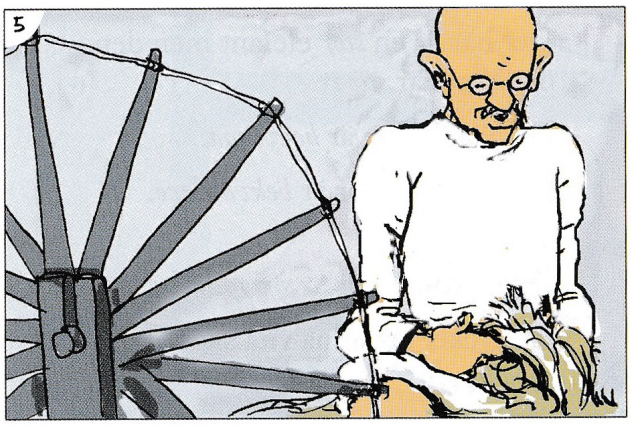

Gandhi came from a middle-class family. In 1888, he went to London to study law.

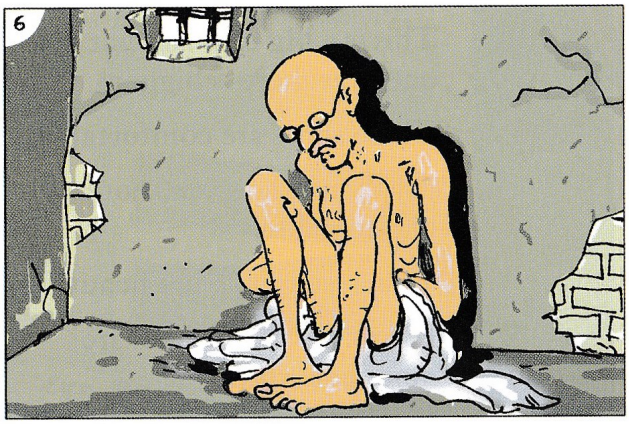

He went to South Africa to work in 1907. He worked there as a lawyer for eight years. He took part in passive protests against apartheid.

In 1915, he returned to India. India was a British colony at the time. Gandhi encouraged Indians not to buy British products and to buy Indian products instead.

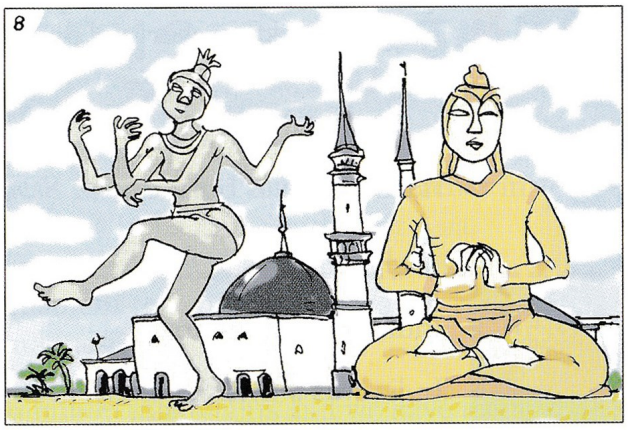

Gandhi lived a very simple life. He made his own clothes as a protest against the British. – the traditional Indian dhoti and shawl. He was also a vegetarian.

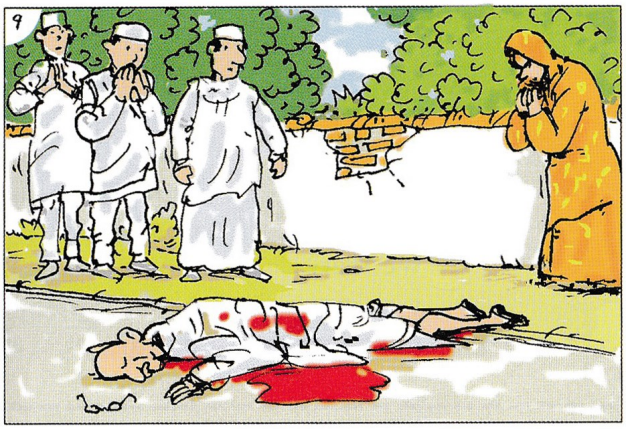

Gandhi wanted people to protest against the British – but he didn't want to use violence. When he was arrested and sent to prison he went on hunger strike. The British were afraid he would die. That could start a revolution. Gandhi knew this.

The Salt March was typical of Gandhi's actions. Britain had a monopoly on salt production in India, and Gandhi didn't like this. Therefore he walked a long way to the sea to get himself some salt. A lot of Indians followed him. The march lasted from 12th March to 6th April, 1930.

Gandhi was a very important political leader who wanted to make India independent. There are many different religions in India but Gandhi wanted all Indians to live together in peace.

On 30th January, 1948 Gandhi was murdered by a Hindu fanatic.

1

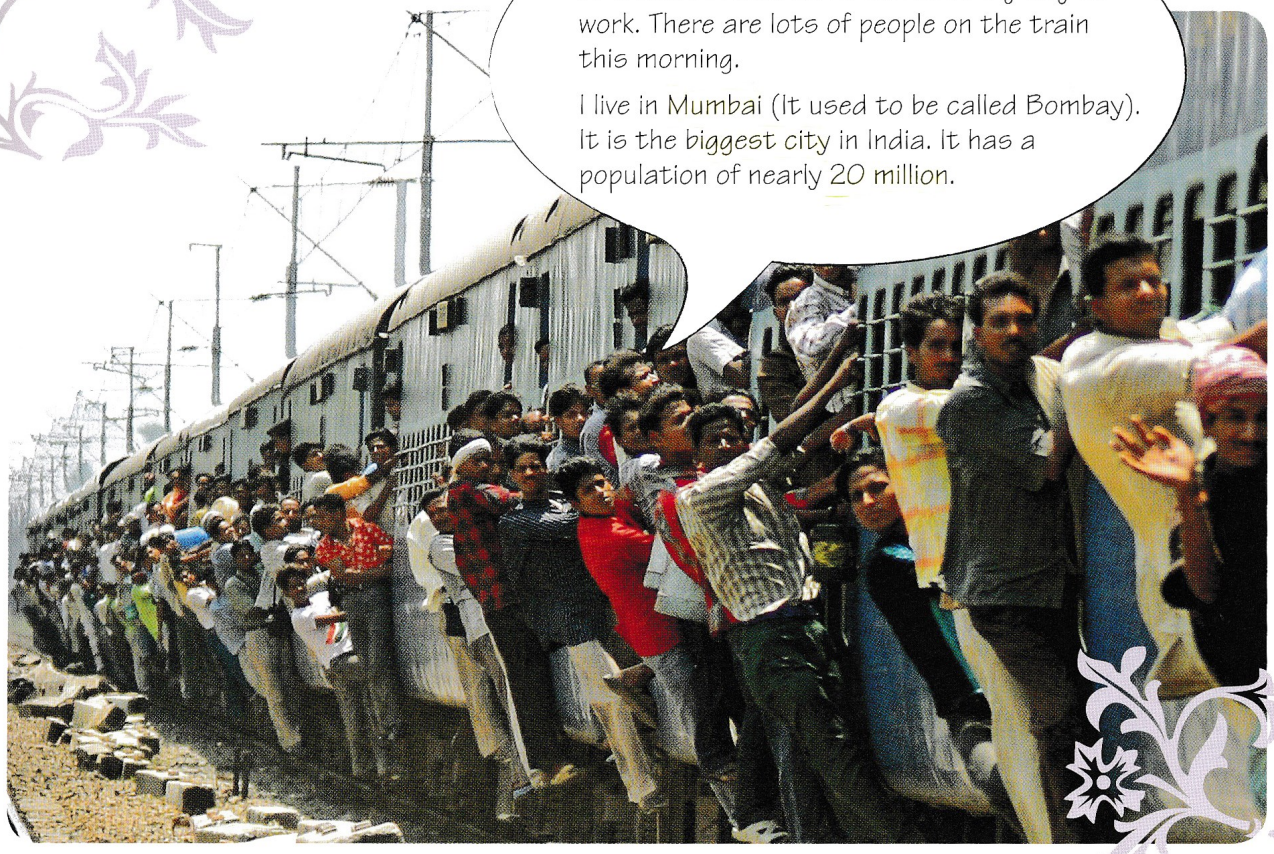

Hello. My name is Hanif Roy. I'm a schoolteacher in Kolkata. As you know India is in South East Asia. Our neighbours are Pakistan, China, Bangladesh, Bhutan and Nepal. Off the coast are Sri Lanka, the Maldives and Indonesia.

India has over a billion inhabitants and we have many different languages. We have at least 800 different languages and there are about 2,000 dialects. How many languages are there in your country?

2

Hi there. I'm Gotam Patel. I'm on my way to work. There are lots of people on the train this morning.

I live in Mumbai (It used to be called Bombay). It is the biggest city in India. It has a population of nearly 20 million.

3

Hi. I'm Jamal Singh. I live in Amritsar. I want to become an engineer and work with computers.

I often go to the temple with my parents. We have a very beautiful temple here called The Golden Temple.

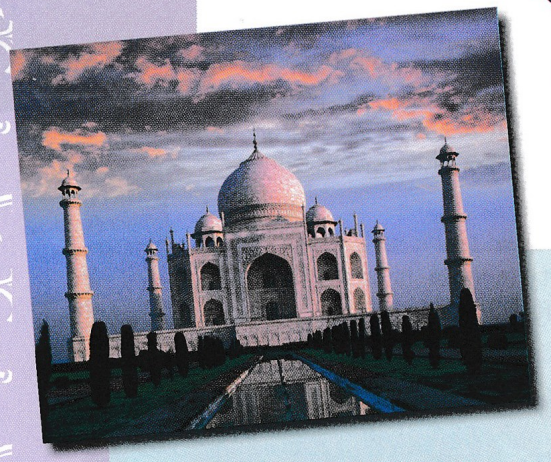

I'm a Sikh but we also have three other religions in India: Hinduism, Buddhism and Islam.

4

Moo! In your country I'm just a walking hamburger but here in India I'm a sacred and respected animal.

I am used to the traffic in the big cities so I can walk in the streets and eat vegetables that the street sellers give me.

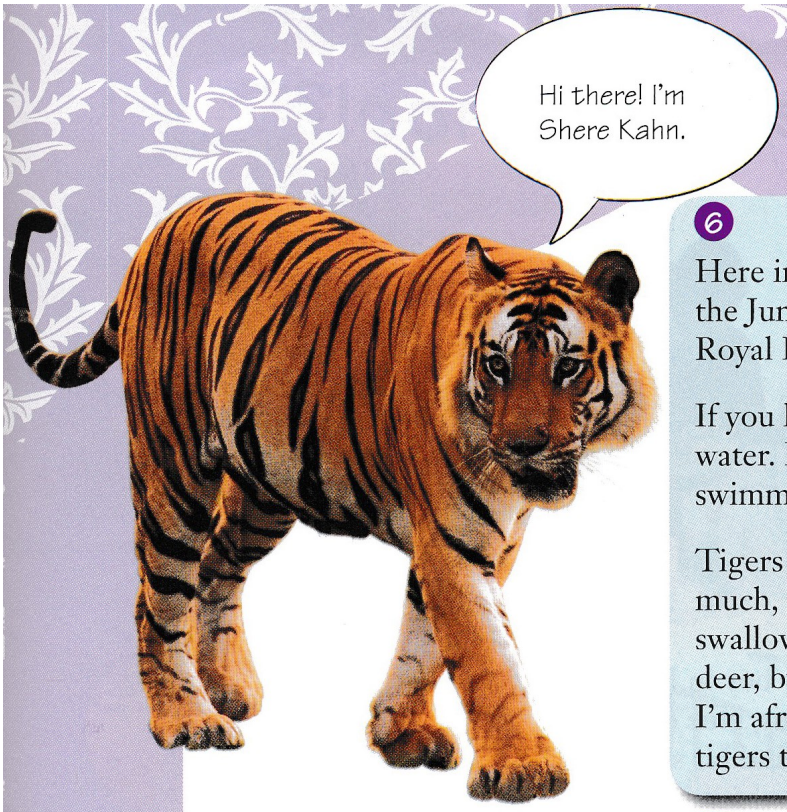

5

Hello. My name's Adwita Singh. Today I'm with my school class in Agra to visit the Taj Mahal.

Our teacher told us the story of Shah Jahan who married a girl called Mumtaz Mahal a long time ago – in 1612. They had 14 children. When she died her husband built the Taj Mahal. They are both buried here. There are a lot of tourists who come to see the Taj Mahal because it is one of the most beautiful monuments in the world. Don't you agree?

6

Here in India I'm called the King of the Jungle. There are around 4,500 Royal Bengal Tigers in the wild.

If you have a cat you know they hate water. I'm a big cat but I am a powerful swimmer and I just love water.

Tigers have very sharp teeth. I don't chew much, I just tear off the meat, and then I swallow it. We eat other animals such as deer, buffalo, wild cattle and wild boars. I'm afraid there are some old and sick tigers that sometimes eat people. Yuk!

7

Hello. My name is Indira Kureishi. I live in New Delhi, the capital of India. India has traditional music, dance and festivals. Here I am at a Hindu festival. Divali is the Festival of Lights. As you can see there are lamps everywhere.

I often go to the cinema. The film industry in Bombay, sometimes called Bollywood, produces almost as many films per year as Hollywood! Most films are romantic films. But there are no kisses, only romantic looks.

8

Hello. My name's Priyanka Metha. I am a waitress in a restaurant in Madras. Of course you know that India is famous for its spicy food and hot curries. People in my restaurant eat with their fingers. They use the fingertips to form the food into a ball with rice or bread.

We have lots of different dishes on our menu because the Hindus don't eat beef and the Muslims don't eat pork so our classical curry is lamb or mutton. We also serve vegetarian dishes.

FRASER Where are you from?

COLIN I'm from Scotland.

FRASER It must feel weird to be in a new school.

COLIN Yes, that's true.

FRASER Where do you live, then?

COLIN Near the cinema in Seagull Road.

FRASER You're kidding! That's where I live! I thought I saw people moving in.

COLIN Yeah. We moved in one week ago. How do you get to school?

FRASER I usually go by bike. If it rains, I get a bus. It only takes about fifteen minutes. Have you got a bike?

COLIN Yes. Dad bought me a new one because I was sad about leaving Aberdeen.

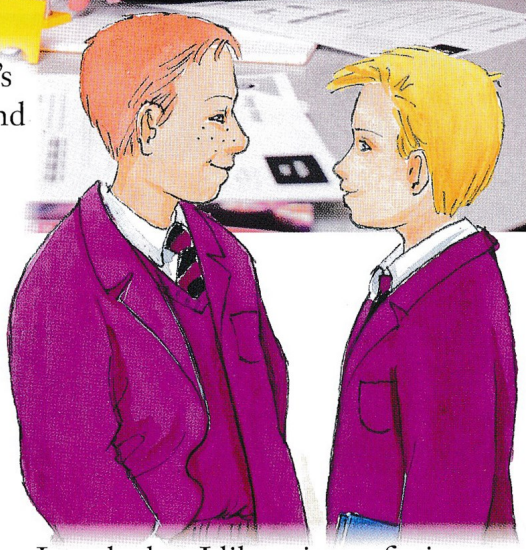

FRASER Cool. I can pick you up and show you the way.

COLIN Yeah. Good idea.

FRASER What do you think of Brighton?

COLIN It looks OK. I love the sea.

FRASER What do you do in your spare time?

COLIN I read a lot. I like science fiction and books about space. I play the drums a bit. And… I watch films.

FRASER Do you like sports?

COLIN Yeah… I'm good at football and basketball. What's PE like?

FRASER Not bad. We've got PE on Wednesday afternoons. By the way, can you come to football practice on Monday nights? We need new players.

COLIN Sorry. I can't. My parents often work late on Mondays so I usually make dinner for me and my younger sister. And I always do the washing up afterwards.

FRASER I see what you mean. I usually help with dinner on Thursdays.

COLIN When we grow up we can open a restaurant.

FRASER You have to go along this corridor and turn right. Then turn left and it's past the double doors. Next to the library. I'll show you.

COLIN I think I can smell it!

FRASER Me, too. I'm starving.

COLIN When is lunch?

FRASER The bell goes at 12.30 but you have to be quick to get good seats.

COLIN When do we have art? I love art.

FRASER Art is on Friday afternoons.

COLIN When do we have maths, then?

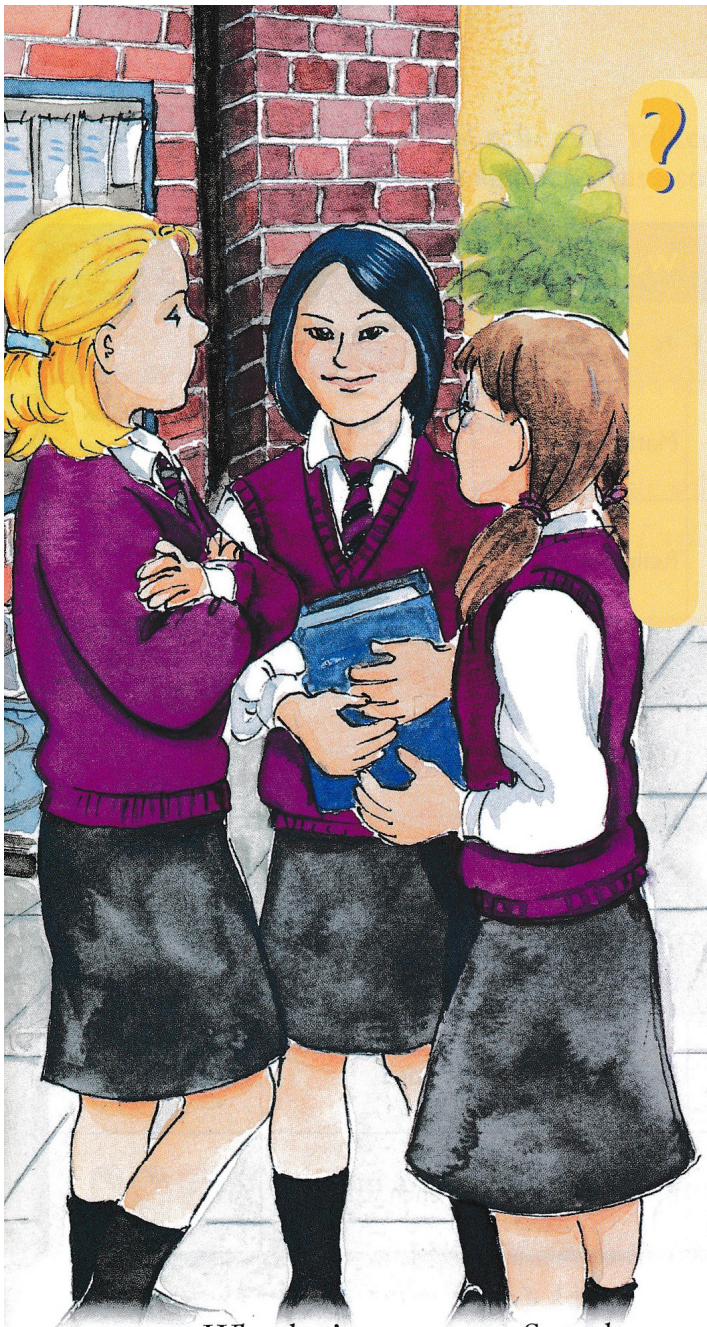

FRASER Well, we have maths on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

COLIN At what time?

FRASER 9am! First thing in the morning. It's torture.

COLIN OK. Never mind. What about Sunday?

FRASER Yes, let's meet on Sunday and go to the beach. Oh, I forgot to tell you; every year there's a school trip.

COLIN Brilliant! I like to see new places. Where are we going this year?

FRASER Scotland!

COLIN Oh, no. Why Scotland? Just my luck!

FRASER Sorry!

Colin is at the police station.

POLICEMAN And how can I help you, young man?

COLIN A lad stole my phone. I was calling a friend and he just snatched it and ran off.

POLICEMAN Did you recognise him?

COLIN No, I didn't.

POLICEMAN So he doesn't go to your school, then?

COLIN No.

POLICEMAN What did he look like?

COLIN He looked about 18. Maybe 19. He was very tall. He had short, curly, blond hair.

POLICEMAN So, what happened exactly?

COLIN I held on to the phone but he punched me in the face. I let go and he ran off.

POLICEMAN What was he wearing?

COLIN Ripped jeans, a dirty blue T-shirt and new trainers.

POLICEMAN What colour were they?

COLIN White.

POLICEMAN Any pattern or logo on the shirt?

COLIN Er, I think it said Run for your life! on the back.

POLICEMAN I'll have to fill out a report. What's your full name?

COLIN Colin Baxter.

POLICEMAN What's your address?

COLIN 72 Seagull Road.

POLICEMAN And your phone number, please?

COLIN 263 59 60. One more thing. He was wearing a black baseball cap.

POLICEMAN Are you sure it was black?

COLIN Yes, I grabbed his cap when he took my phone! Here it is!

Janet (✱), a girl in the USA, is chatting online with Colin (").

✱ Hi!

" Hi!

✱ Where are you?

" Brighton. You?

✱ Cambridge.

" Cool.

Cambridge USA!

Oh!

How's the weather in the UK?

Wet. It's raining.

Typical British weather!

Yeah. Actually. It's not always wet. Sometimes we get very hot days and blue skies. Like last week.

It's nice here. A bit windy. What kind of house do you live in?

We live in a block of flats. We can see the sea from our balcony.

Cool.

My name's Colin. What's your name?

Janet.

I'm new here. We moved from Aberdeen.

Are you Scottish?

Yes.

Have you got red hair and freckles?!! Ha Ha.

Yes, actually.

And do you wear a skirt?

It's a kilt. No. I never wear a kilt. My Dad often wears one at weddings and new year parties.

Are you into any sports, music etc?

Yes. I take part in the Highland games every year and play the bagpipes.

Really?

No. Duh!

Ha Ha.

I like football and basketball.

You mean soccer?

Yes.

Girls play soccer here. I like baseball.

Girls play baseball here but they call it "rounders". Ha Ha.

I love rap music. Do you?

No. I prefer rock. I can play the drums too.

Cool. Are you good?

Not bad.

I play the piano a bit. Got any pets?

A rabbit and a dog. You?

I've got a rat.

You're kidding.

No. I like rats.

Gross.

I leave it in my brother's room. He gets very angry with me.

Do you like films?

Yes. I love the Mission Impossible films.

Me too. And all spy films.

I like films with a twist. And horror. Lots of blood.

Weirdo.

I want to make films when I grow up. I've got a great camcorder.

Can you video Cambridge for me? Send me some clips.

OK. If I can't make films I want to be a pilot.

Awesome.

I want to fly all over the world.

We went to Greece for our holidays last year.

Cool.

The beaches are amazing. You need a boat to get to some of the beaches.

I've never been to Greece. We went to Florida last summer. I touched an alligator.

Wow!

And a snake. I also won a trip in a helicopter. That's why I want to be a pilot.

That's good. Then you can fly over here and have some fish 'n' chips with us!

Deal!

Gotta go now. Mum says dinner's ready.

OK. Catch you later.

OK, bye.

Fraser, Olivia, Colin and his American cousin Megan are in London for a couple of days. Mr and Mrs Clark are with them. Yesterday they went on the London Eye, visited Madame Tussauds and saw Buckingham Palace. Now they are walking along Oxford Street.

MRS CLARK Is this your first time in London?

COLIN Yes. It's amazing. There are so many people and places.

MEGAN Oxford Street goes on forever. Look at all these shops.

OLIVIA Yes, but everything is so expensive.

COLIN Is Harrods here?

MR CLARK No it's in Knightsbridge. We have to get the tube or bus to go there.

COLIN What's the name of that famous toy shop?

OLIVIA Hamleys.

FRASER Yeah. That's not far, is it? Dad, can you take us?

MR CLARK OK.

FRASER Yessss!! Let's go. I can't wait to see the latest PlayStation stuff.

MR CLARK Hang on. Can we nip in to the chemist's for a second. I've got a horrible headache. I'll buy some aspirin.

MRS CLARK And some plasters. My feet are killing me!

MEGAN I'll go with Olivia to the Tourist Office to get a good map of London. Can we meet again in an hour or so?

OLIVIA Dad, where exactly is the Tourist Office?

MR CLARK I think there's a Tourist Office in Lower Regent Street.

OLIVIA How do we get there?

MR CLARK Walk along this street until you get to Oxford Circus. It's about 150 metres from here. Then you turn left and walk down Regent Street. Continue all the way down to Picadilly Circus.

MEGAN Is it far?

MR CLARK No. It's a ten-minute walk from here.

MEGAN Phew!

MR CLARK When you get to the first set of traffic lights at Picadilly Circus you can cross the street.

OLIVIA Where do we go from there?

MR CLARK Now you turn right into Lower Regent Street. You'll find the Tourist Office right opposite a famous sports shop called Lillywhites.

The London Eye 1

Look at all these people who want to go on the London Eye. I'm so glad we booked online. The views of London are fantastic and from the top you can see about 40 km in all directions. The London Eye is in the heart of London almost opposite Big Ben. The wheel moves at 26 metres per minute and the ride takes about half an hour. You can check the time with Big Ben. But what happens if I find out that I'm afraid of heights?

Madame Tussauds LONDON 2

Here I am at Madame Tussauds. I can't believe I'm standing next to Johnny Depp. He looks just like Captain Jack Sparrow in Pirates of the Caribbean. I can touch his chin and he is looking at me. Wow! There are so many dummies here, and they are so REAL! My favourites are Britney Spears, Charlie Chaplin, and the Queen! I think I'll go down to the Chamber of Horrors now. There's something written on the wall: Abandon all hope All ye who enter here! It's pretty creepy to go in here! They say no-one can hear your screams from the outside...

THE TOWER OF LONDON 3

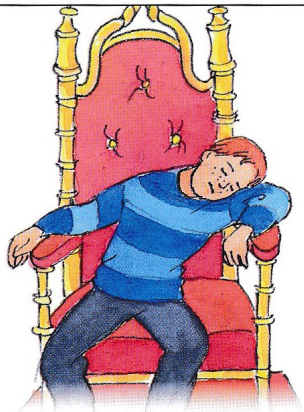

Arrkh! My name's Mr Walker. I'm one of the ravens here. I walk about on the lawns and smile at the cameras all day. I don't know why the tourists are so crazy about taking pictures of me and my friends. I sometimes wish I could fly away, but they have clipped my wings. According to an old legend the Tower and kingdom will fall if the ravens leave the Tower.

Let me give you a few facts (I have heard them a thousand times from the Beefeaters). The Tower is almost 1,000 years old. It's a palace, a fortress, a place to keep weapons and a home for the Crown Jewels. The Tower has a bloody history as it was once a prison with dark dungeons and a place for executions! King Richard III killed two children – about your age – by putting a pillow over their faces. Arrkh! Arrkh!

Harrods 4

I really wanted to see the most famous shop in London, Harrods! Its customers are often very rich and famous. They say you can buy anything at Harrods. Its motto is: Everything for Everybody Everywhere. Here I am at the furniture department. That armchair looks very comfortable.

SHOP ASSISTANT Can I help you young man?

COLIN Er… yes. How much is this armchair?

SHOP ASSISTANT It's £10,000 sir – without the silver armrests. That's £3,000 extra.

COLIN Well, I'll have to think about it. Goodbye.

This sport for rabbits is very popular. It began in Sweden in the 1970s. Today there are more than 4,000 "rabbit hoppers" in Scandinavia, Britain and Germany. Every weekend there are competitions, and lots of people come to watch.

Training is very important. The rabbits start training when they are about two months old, and learn to jump over obstacles when they are four months old. When they are older, they train for about twenty minutes every day.

Peter Rabbit's owner, Ann Parker, 12, often takes him out for a walk. She says it's much better than keeping him in a small cage, and he really likes going out with her.

Ann is very proud of Peter Rabbit, and says that he is very good at the long jump.

His best hop is 2.05 metres. At the moment, a Danish rabbit holds the world record for both the long jump (3m) and the high jump (1m). "A lot of people think it's better for the rabbits to be in the wild, but Peter and I have lots of fun." says Ann. "If he is not happy he will not jump. I know he loves to win and share the prize with me – a big carrot."

One day Mike McCarthy, of Inverness in Scotland, was spending the day in the country with his dog. He is a ten-year-old black labrador called Charlie. By late afternoon it was time to go back home. On the way back to the station, Mike needed to go to the toilet so he went into the nearest pub. He told Charlie to be a good dog and wait for him. When he got back, Charlie wasn't there. Mike looked for him everywhere.

It was getting late and Mike felt very sad. At eleven o'clock he took the last train home. When Mike got home Charlie was waiting for him on the doormat! Mike couldn't understand it. How was it possible?

The next day, he read in the newspaper about a mysterious dog, who had jumped on board a train at Inverurie Station near Aberdeen. Then it had jumped off again at Inverness.

On the station's security camera you could see Charlie. At half past eight he simply took the right train home. He knew it was the right train, because he had been on that train many times before. Twelve minutes later the dog got off at the right station - Inverness. There was a train conductor on the platform. When he wanted to see Charlie's ID tag Charlie just ran between his legs and went home.

Felix feels lonely after the tragic accident when his best friend died.

Last Thursday a 79-year-old woman from Kingston was at home watching TV. Her kitten, Felix, accidentally knocked over a lit candle and started a fire. Marge was asleep in her wheelchair when this happened, and the smoke made her unconscious.

Marge fell to the floor but her 13-year-old golden retriever, Honeybear, woke her up by licking her face. Marge Cambell cannot walk because she lost her leg in a car accident three years ago. Amazingly, Honeybear brought her false leg and her mobile phone so she could call for help. When she got out Marge called the fire brigade and an ambulance.

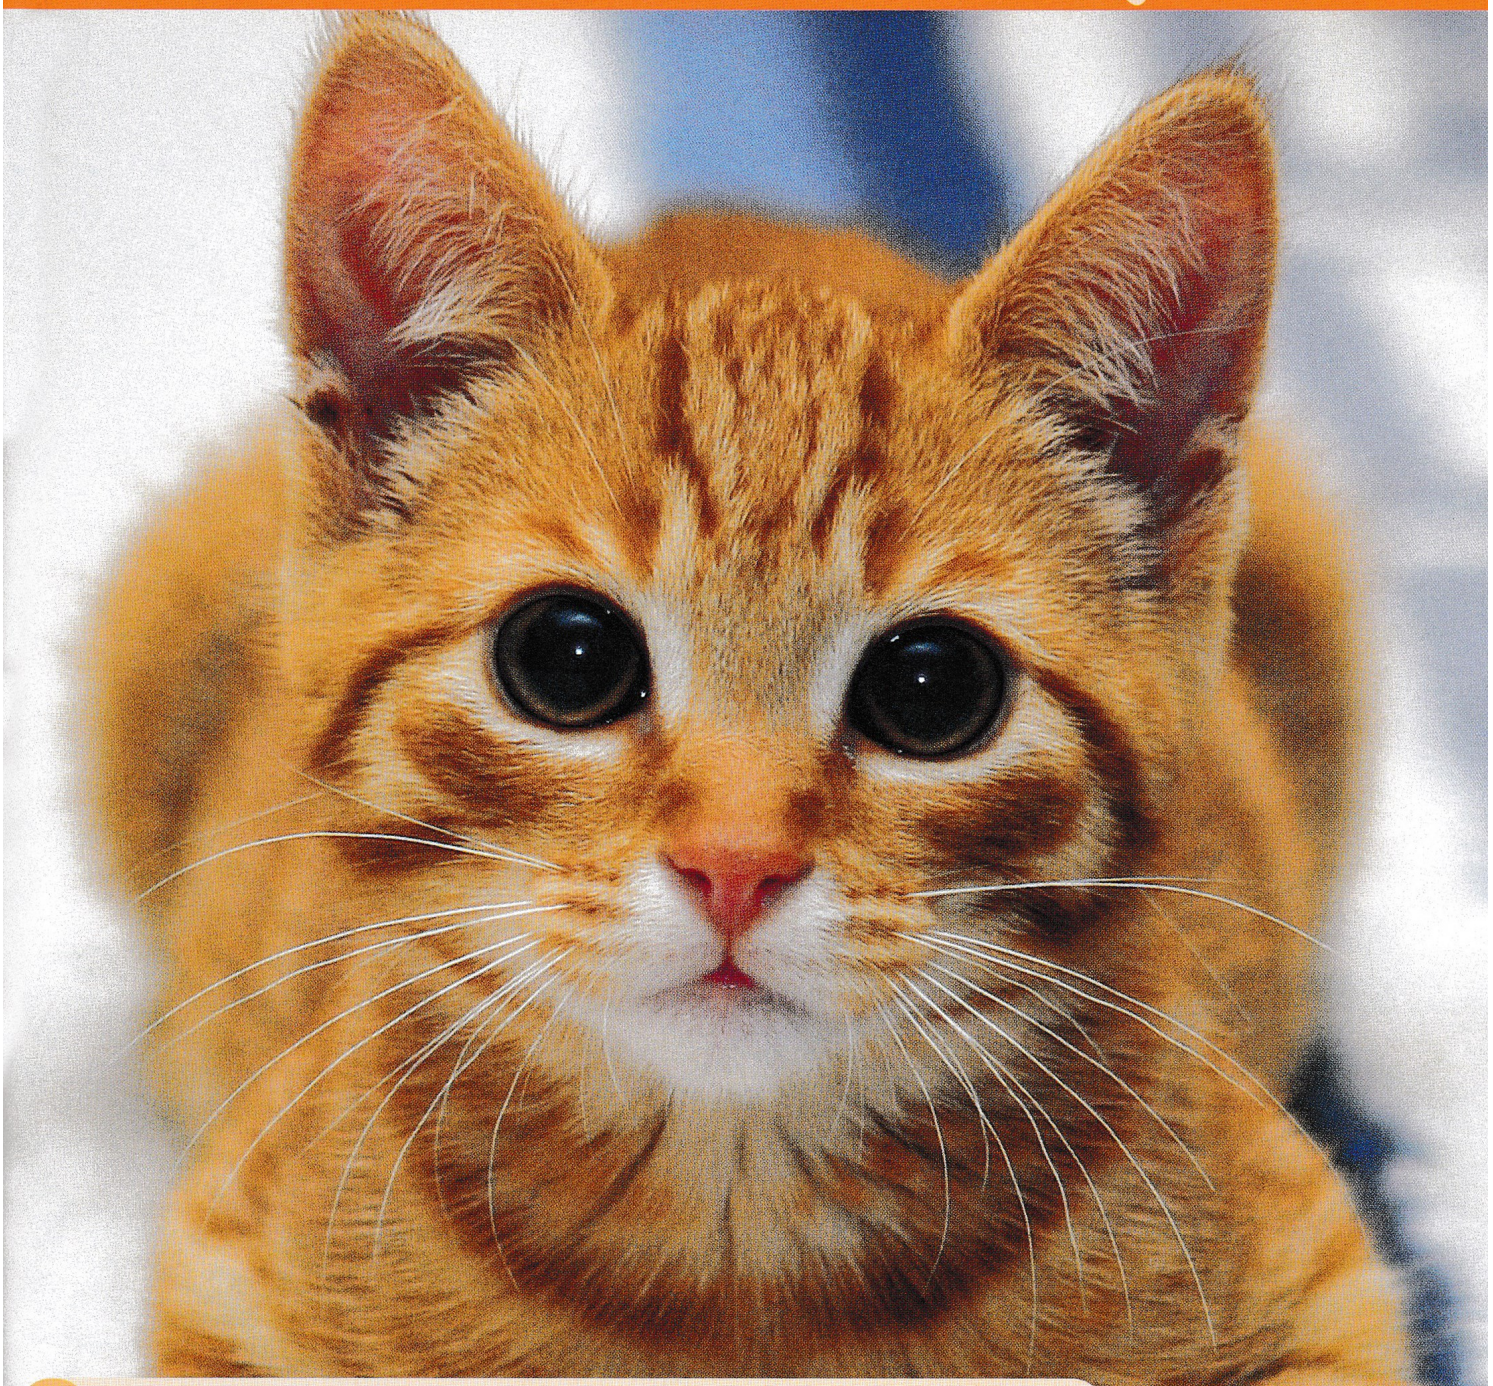

Honeybear ran upstairs to help Felix but she got stuck in the bathroom and died in the fire. The house was burnt to the ground but Felix survived. He jumped out of the bathroom window, and landed in a water barrel! Marge says she does not blame Felix for starting the fire. She blames herself. Marge misses her dog a lot.

"I loved her so much. She saved my life. I'm so sad that she's gone," says a tearful Marge Campbell.

NEW YORK

Police Officer Rob Troy has a story to tell.

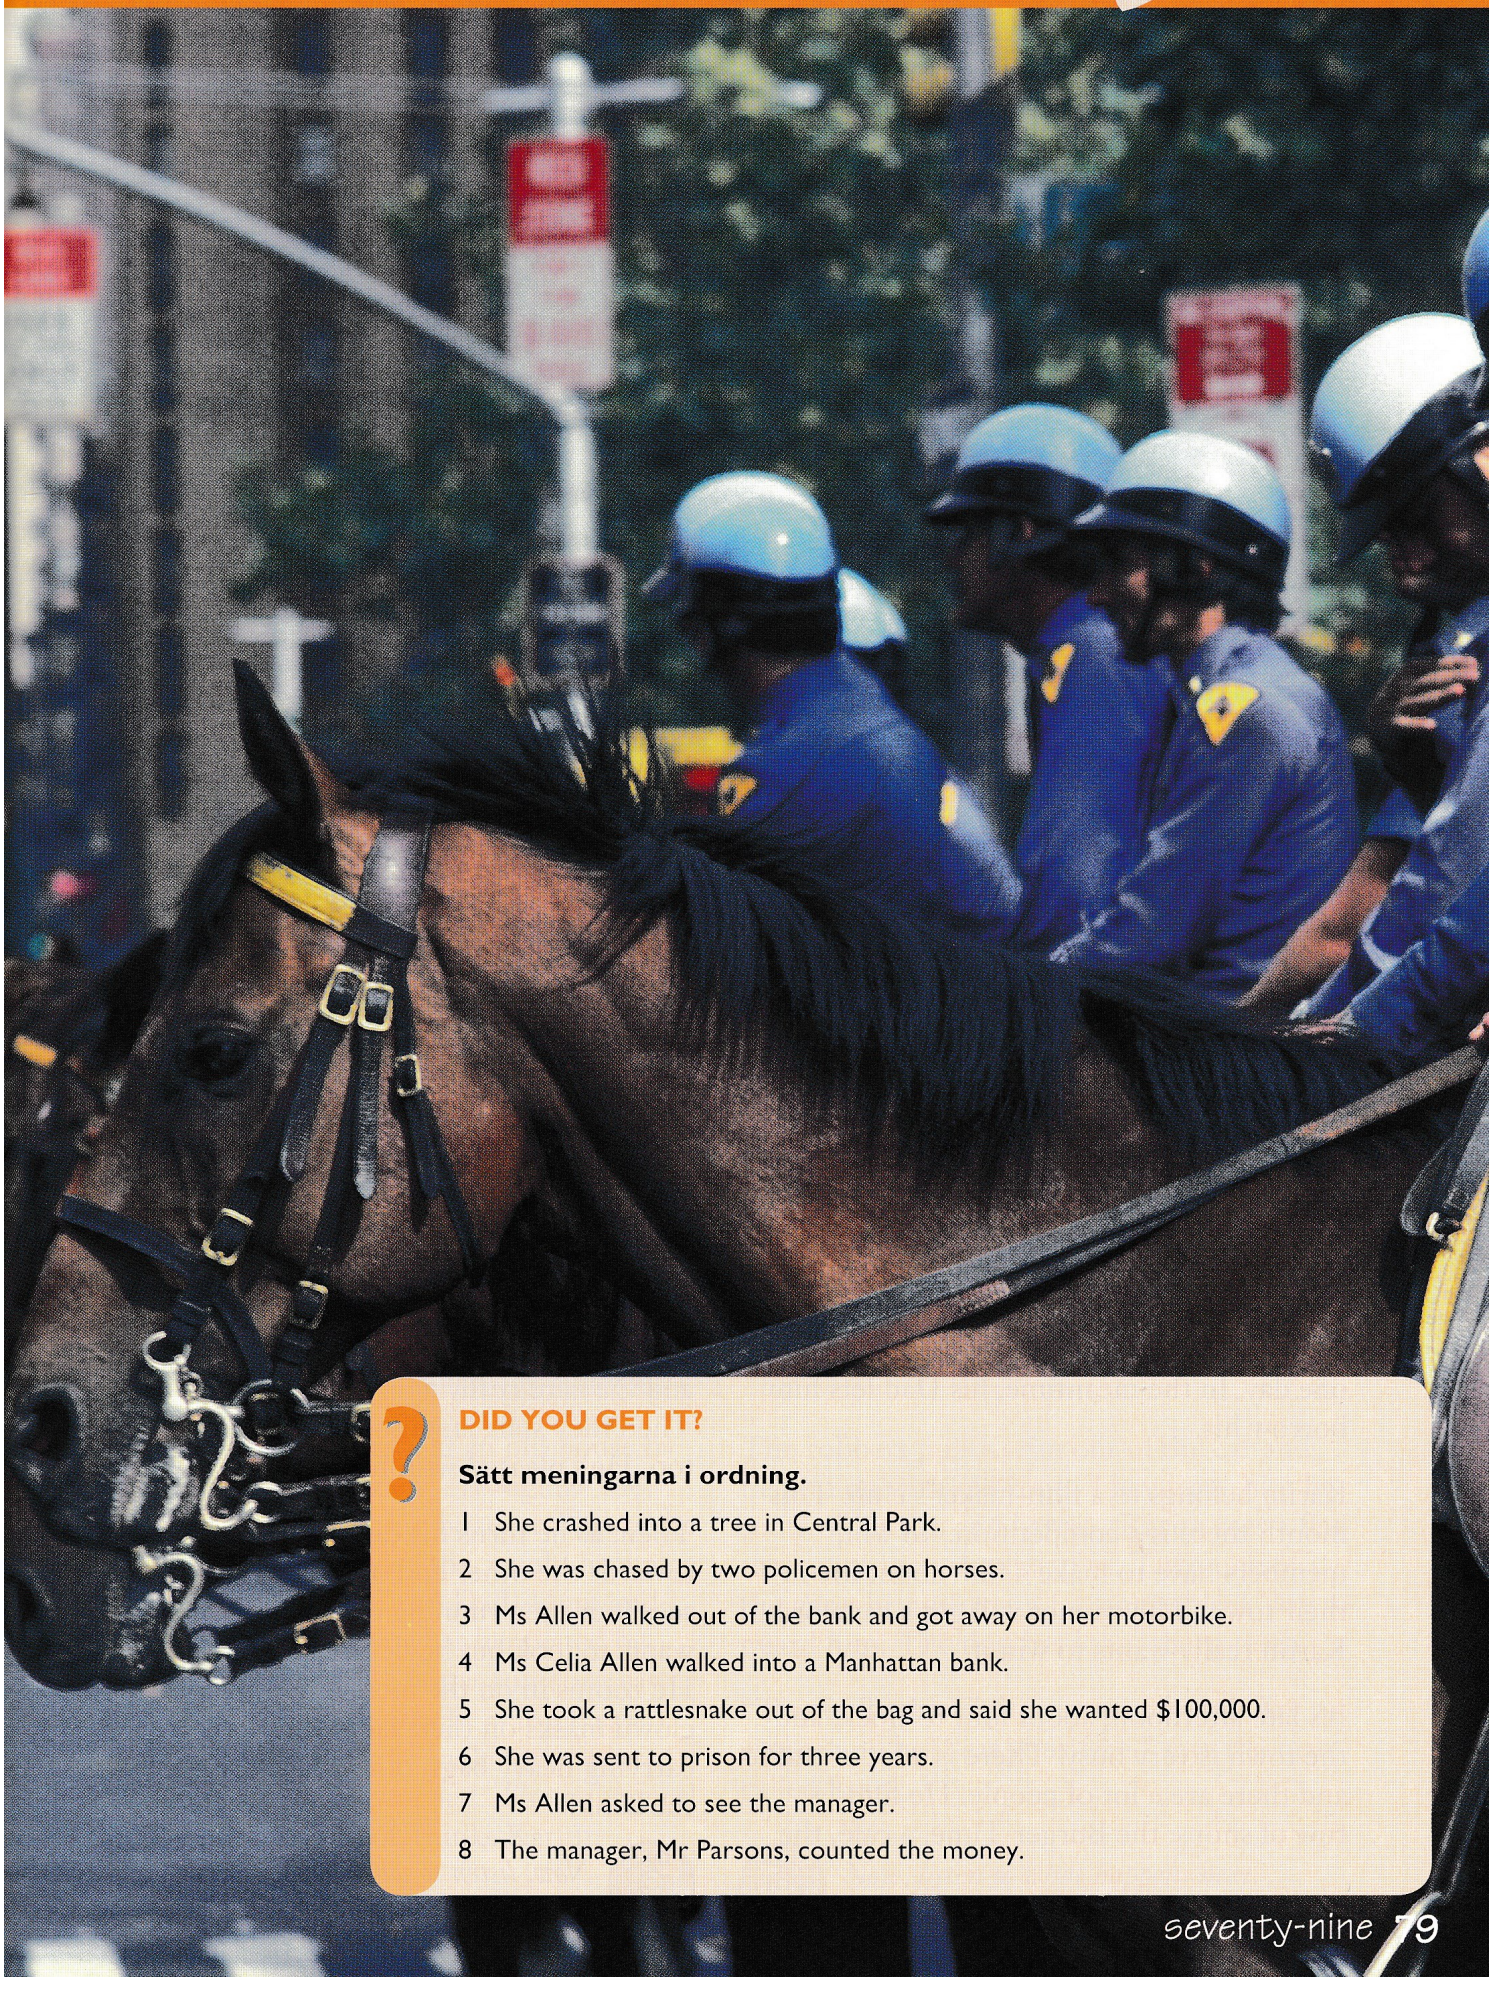

At 4.35pm on Friday 16th March, an old woman called Celia Allen walked into the Manhattan Island Bank with a big sports bag. When it was her turn she asked to see the manager.

Mr Louis Parsons arrived and took Ms Allen into his office. When he sat down, Ms Allen took a rattlesnake out of the bag. She told him she wanted $100,000, or the snake would bite him. Mr Parsons was terrified, of course. He counted the money in front of her and then Ms Allen put the snake in her bag and walked out.

I arrived in my patrol car two minutes later. It was rush hour and there were cars everywhere. The old lady had a small motorbike and got away quickly. A police parade was taking place nearby. There were a lot of policemen and policewomen, with police dogs and police horses. I called the mounted police on the radio. For the next 30 minutes there was a chase in downtown Manhattan, with an old woman on a motorbike and two policemen on horseback! A lot of people were surprised by what they saw. Some got out of their cars to take pictures on their cell phones.

One of the policemen was catching up with Ms Allen. She crashed into a tree in Central Park. The snake had bitten Ms Allen twice – once on the shoulder and once on her neck. She was lucky to survive. After two months she went to court and was sent to prison for three years for the robbery and for stealing a snake from the zoo.

Karim is standing in the high street. He takes out his Dad's camcorder. It's a beautiful autumn day. It's sunny with a clear blue sky. A perfect day for making a film, thinks Karim. He wants to be a famous film director and he wants to buy his own camcorder one day. In the meantime, his Dad lets him borrow his.

Karim belongs to a film-maker's club. This month there is a competition. To win, members have to make a film about life in their town. The winner will get a camcorder! Karim really wants to win it.

It's late afternoon, about four o' clock, and the town is very busy. There is a lot of traffic and there are a lot of people. He films a row of shops: the Burger Time, a café, the supermarket. He sees a lorry at the petrol station so he films that, too. Next he films some people: a traffic warden who is writing a parking ticket, an old man who is coming out of the café, and two girls who are running to catch a bus. They miss the bus and they are really angry and out of breath. Then they start laughing. Karim is smiling, too. He's pleased with his film so far.

Then, as he turns his camcorder back towards the other end of the street, Karim sees four men running out of the bank. He wants to look but he decides to keep filming. He zooms in on the men. They are wearing clown masks on their faces, and they are carrying heavy bags. They have just robbed the bank!

After an hour they arrive at an old house by the harbour. Karim doesn't recognize the place. He sees the fishing boats and hears the seagulls. On another day this would be a nice day out with his Mum and Dad. Mum and Dad! They must know what happened by now, thinks Karim. He hopes someone saw him. The girls and the traffic warden saw him. The police must be looking for him. His family will be so worried. The only good thing is I'll miss school, thinks Karim.

The robbers pull Karim out of the car and tie him up with old rope. They leave him by some old boxes and barrels. Karim sees a few rats running in the shadows. Then one of the gang brings over a fat, angry black dog to guard him. The dog has long, sharp teeth.

"This is Rocky. He's your new friend. Try to escape and he'll eat your face," says the man called Frank.

"OK. I didn't give you the sandwich. You took it. But did I say anything, huh? Did I complain?"

Rocky barks again. He is ready to jump at Karim.

"OK. Sorry about the fishing net."

Karim can see that Rocky is going to jump at him. He looks around for something to use as a weapon. There is nothing. Karim sees that the cabin roof window is open so he quickly jumps up and holds on. Rocky jumps and tries to bite Karim's legs but he can't reach. Subject: Survival Story

Dear Karim,
Congratulations on your survival and your excellent film! We hope you are feeling better after the terrible events. You are a very brave lad!

We have seen your video, and would like to talk to you. We want to make a film about what happened to you. We can use the video which you filmed, too. When you are feeling better, we will pay for you to come to Hollywood and spend time with us. We think your story and film are very special.

Best wishes, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours truly,
