Welcome back!

FRASER

Welcome back!

Hello. Nice to see you again. I hope you had a nice summer holiday.

OLIVIA

Here in Britain it's the last week of the summer holidays and we are on a boat trip on the Caledonian Canal, near Loch Ness, with our parents. And before you ask, we haven't seen the monster.

FRASER

Dad doesn't like boats because he gets seasick.

OLIVIA

Dizzie, our dog, is asleep on deck all day and King, our parrot, is swearing like a pirate so we keep him in his cage in my cabin. Columbus – that's our cat – is at home with our neighbours, Sue and Robert.

It's eight in the morning and everybody is on deck. Mrs Clark is reading the newspaper. Fraser and Olivia are going to do the washing up after breakfast.

MRS CLARK Listen to this: The weather forecast says it's going to be nice today. It's going to be sunny and quite hot. But it's going to be cloudy later this afternoon, and windy.

FRASER What's the weather forecast for tomorrow?

MRS CLARK Tomorrow it's going to rain. It's going to be a lot cooler.

FRASER What are we going to do today?

MRS CLARK I'm going to stay on board and fix a few things, but if you want to visit Inverness, you should go today. Why don't you take a packed lunch? There are some left-overs from yesterday's tea.

KING Aye aye, Captain.

OLIVIA I don't like left-overs.

MRS CLARK Then I suggest you borrow my fishing-rod and catch some fish for lunch.

OLIVIA Come on Fraser. Let's go and get Nessie.
