London on the map

The London Eye 1

Look at all these people who want to go on the London Eye. I'm so glad we booked online. The views of London are fantastic and from the top you can see about 40 km in all directions. The London Eye is in the heart of London almost opposite Big Ben. The wheel moves at 26 metres per minute and the ride takes about half an hour. You can check the time with Big Ben. But what happens if I find out that I'm afraid of heights?

Here I am at Madame Tussauds. I can't believe I'm standing next to Johnny Depp. He looks just like Captain Jack Sparrow in Pirates of the Caribbean. I can touch his chin and he is looking at me. Wow! There are so many dummies here, and they are so REAL! My favourites are Britney Spears, Charlie Chaplin, and the Queen! I think I'll go down to the Chamber of Horrors now. There's something written on the wall: Abandon all hope All ye who enter here! It's pretty creepy to go in here! They say no-one can hear your screams from the outside...

THE TOWER OF LONDON 3

Arrkh! My name's Mr Walker. I'm one of the ravens here. I walk about on the lawns and smile at the cameras all day. I don't know why the tourists are so crazy about taking pictures of me and my friends. I sometimes wish I could fly away, but they have clipped my wings. According to an old legend the Tower and kingdom will fall if the ravens leave the Tower.

Let me give you a few facts (I have heard them a thousand times from the Beefeaters). The Tower is almost 1,000 years old. It's a palace, a fortress, a place to keep weapons and a home for the Crown Jewels. The Tower has a bloody history as it was once a prison with dark dungeons and a place for executions! King Richard III killed two children – about your age – by putting a pillow over their faces. Arrkh! Arrkh!

Harrods

4

I really wanted to see the most famous shop in London, Harrods! Its customers are often very rich and famous. They say you can buy anything at Harrods. Its motto is: Everything for Everybody Everywhere. Here I am at the furniture department. That armchair looks very comfortable.

Can I help you young man?
Er... yes. How much is this armchair?
It's £10,000 sir – without the silver armrests. That's £3,000 extra.
Well, I'll have to think about it.
Goodbye.
